SOUTH AFRICAN AFFAIRS.

Signing the Terms of Peace. London, June 4 .- Lord Milner and Lord Kitchener, at Pretoria, awaited the signature of the Boer delegates. Amid profound silence each delegate, in order of precedence, signed the surrender of independence of his State, for which all had so gallantly struggled. The document was entrusted to Lieutenant, Colonal H. I. W. Hamilton, D.S.O. Military Secretary to Lord Kitchener, and Captain R. J. Marker, D.S.O., A.D.C.

The roads of Hongkong are broad and rule all the officials are upright, Why, then, is it that so many people do business here as visitors only and take their families to and from their homes in Macao? There are many reasons for this. Perhaps one reason is that very few Chinese know that much sunlight is needed to put away plague, and that the air must be pure and their bodies clean. Why does the Government not prepare small textbooks on cleanliness to be taught in the schools, and also distribute paperss stating the methods of the Sanitary Board by the portions,—the streets are dull and cheerless | hand of the inspectors when they make their examination of houses, so that the people might understand what is being done and their fears might be removed?

Why not urge the Chinese in Hongkong to establish a Guild Hall not only a merchant's club, and let each district or each surname or trade appoint two members by election as its representatives?
